"OBACE CHARLIE."

He Returns With a Band of Indians
 From an Extended Tour.

Chas. Beers, better known in early days as "Obace Charlie," returned from Frederick, Md., this week, where his wild west show went into winter quarters a few days ago. The show, which is under the management of Maj. Lillie, ("Pawnee Bill"), closed a most successful season in Canada and the northeast and Charlie returns well satisfied with his year's work. The Indians used in this wild west combination were secured by Mr. Beers from the Cherokee and Arapahoe tribes, our neighbors on the west. There were twenty-five of them, all strapping big fellows, self-supplied with gorgeous native costumes, beaded and highly ornamented in every way.
 The Indians returned with money in their pockets, having been well fed, well clothed and well treated wherever they went. They are more than satisfied with the show and are ready and eager to go again.

The show, which would be of much interest even to western people, was a marvel to the people of the northeast.
 Wild west shows have visited that region before, but never such a show as this one. The combination carried a large canvas and as many people as a circus. Carl Wilder's cow boy band, one of the best in the country, was one of the attractions. The costumes were so elaborate, the Mexican Indians, the people generally, carried by the show were so neat, clean and generally, and the feats performed by them were really so exciting and marvelous that immense crowds greeted them everywhere.
 They played to 50,000 people daily while in Canada and before the royalty at the Canadian capital.
 The leading characters in the show were Pawnee Bill and wife and our fellow townsman, Charlie Beers. The latter has been in the Indian country and Oklahoma for many years previous to the opening of the latter, and has had some adventures and incidents he fall him that would equal the startling accounts of many of the western pioneers now recorded in history, so it was but natural for him to take a leading part in all the tragic scenes given him by the show, and they were all so realistic that they never failed to bring down the house.

In all the eastern cities Major Lillie and wife and Charlie Beers were har-queted and entertained royally by the most prominent society people. They were extended every courtesy that could possibly be given them, and were made to promise in each instance to return next season.

Many amusing and interesting incidents happened to Charlie during his sojourn on the road, but we haven't room to relate them. Major Lillie and wife will visit the city in the course of a few weeks and then we may have some more interesting news to give our readers.

Justice Done Galveston

The following from the New York Tribune of October 24, is due to information sent the Tribune by Mr. Tom Richardson, secretary of the deep water utilization committee:
 "We learn that the Tribune was in error in stating, on October 11, that the ceremony of presenting the magnificent silver service to the battleship Texas given by the citizens of Texas did not take place at Galveston because the Texas draws too much water to permit its entering the harbor of Galveston. As a matter of fact, the ship drawing 23 feet of water constantly crosses the bar which guards the Galveston harbor, and as the Texas draws 22½ feet it will find no difficulty in crossing the bar. While we regret we fell into an error, which we need hardly say was unintentional, we are glad that it gives us an opportunity of congratulating the city of Galveston and the great state of Texas on the fact that the noble battleship which bears the name of the state will be able to enter the splendid harbor at Galveston where the citizens of this state may form a personal acquaintance with it."

How to Prevent Croup.

Some reading that will prove interesting to young mothers. How to guard against the disease:

Croup is a terror to young mothers, and to post them concerning the cause, first symptoms and treatment is the object of this item. The origin of croup is a common cold. Children who are subject to it take cold very easily and croup is almost sure to follow.
 The first symptom is hoarseness; this is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given, all tendency to croup will soon disappear. Even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in giving this remedy, for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Saxonian Drug Co.
